

Wiggle wiggle wiggle wiggle wiggle

Written by eileen

Wednesday, 28 April 2010 06:41 -

In many ways the passions of an almost two year old seem predictable - wiggles, bob the builder, fireman sam.

These days Luke seems to live for the wiggles and when we went to the library today he firmly clutched his wiggles dvd in one hand and his bear in the other for the duration of our visit. After we got home I put on Jack's DVD (superheros) while Luke came to draw with me for a bit but he seemed to sense that fair's fair and after Jack had watched a few episodes Luke started to repeat the mantra 'wiggle wiggle wiggle wiggle'. He submitted to a nappy change once it became clear I was complying & settled into wiggly bliss